Greetings from Kenya. I have been busy since I returned to Kenya, catching up with ministry activities and holding peace meetings between conflicting tribes in the northern part of the country.
God continues to use us in various ways in Pokot to spread the gospel. The power of the gospel is amazing. We never could believe that one day in our lifetime, Pokots and Turkana tribes would sit and reason together in peace. But it is happening now to the glory of His name.
I too enjoyed my time with you. You were such a blessing group of people to me in your testimonies, singing and the general worshipping time.
Please share my love and greetings to all in the church.
Thanks and God bless. Julius
